

It's Show Time!!

What gemstone have you been dreaming of?

It's time for the International Gem Show...the best time for me to source very specific stones that you may be dreaming of! There are literally thousands of gem dealers all in one place with the best selections in the world.

So, if you've been dreaming or wishing for something to add to your collection, this is the best time for me to shop specifically for you. Let me know what you'd like, and I can talk to the brokers, see what they have, and choose the prettiest stone based on exactly what YOU want.

Last year, I was able to find some really rare stones for a few of my customers that made fabulous custom rings with them.

So...what have you been dreaming of?? Isn't it time to treat yourself to something really special? Contact me if you want me to shop for you and we can go over the details.

I leave on February 2nd and return on February 6th, so don't delay. That's less than two weeks away. - Melinda
